

Contaminated Surplus Property

Appendix 1: Equipment Requiring Item Evaluation

The items listed below are examples of equipment and materials requiring completion of the Item Evaluation form. The list is not exhaustive. Complete and/or print the Item Evaluation as needed.

Any equipment or material that has hazards which need to be mitigated

Autoclaves

Benchtops

Biological safety cabinet

Centrifuges

Cryostats

Dead tanks

Ductwork

Environmental chambers

Flammable cabinets

Freezers

Fume hoods and fans

Furniture

Glassware and plasticware

Glove boxes

Incubators

Lasers

Lead-based paint

Microfuges

Microwave ovens

Ovens

Parts from gas and plumbing fixtures

Radioactive sources,* including but not limited to:

Liquid scintillation counters

Gamma counters

Gas chromatographs with Ni-63 electron capture detectors

Radiation machines,* including but not limited to::

Cabinet X-ray units

Veterinary X-ray machines

X-ray: crystallography; diffraction; and fluorescence units

Refrigerators

Shakers

Contaminated Surplus Property
Appendix 1: Equipment Requiring Item Evaluation

Sinks

Storage cabinets and lockers used to store chemical products or hazardous waste

Vacuum pumps

Waterbaths

* Any item to be surplused that is marked with a label containing a "Caution: Radioactive Material" or similar message must be evaluated by the Radiation Safety Office prior to surplusing.