Emergency Contacts and Information

OVERVIEW

This section provides emergency information links and contacts for use by persons at the WSU Pullman, WSU Spokane, WSU Tri-Cities, WSU Vancouver, and WSU Everett campuses. (See also Further Information below.)

Persons at other locations should refer to local telephone directories for emergency telephone numbers.

Washington Poison Center

EXCEPTION: The Washington Poison Center (WAPC) number may be used from anywhere in Washington; telephone 1-800-222-1222.

WSU PULLMAN

The following telephone numbers and emergency services websites are for use by persons at WSU Pullman.

Emergencies Only

For emergencies only call 9-1-1:

• To request the following services:
  ○ Police
  ○ Sheriff
  ○ Fire
  ○ Emergency medical services/ambulance

• To report the following:
  ○ Hazardous materials spills
  ○ Biohazards/blood spills
  ○ Air/water pollution releases
  ○ Radioactive materials spills

NOTE: There may be a few second switching delay when calling from campus telephones. DO NOT HANG UP.

An emergency communications operator from the local dispatcher, WHITCOM, is available 24 hours a day to receive calls and dispatch the proper response.

Calmly provide the operator with factual details of the incident and any other required information. Let the emergency operator hang up first.
